DE LA GASCA & CIA. in El Salvador Becomes ALFA International's Fourth Member Firm in Central America

ALFA International (ALFAI) is delighted to announce DE LA GASCA & CIA. has joined the network as its member firm in El Salvador, effective April 23, 2024.

DE LA GASCA & CIA., based in San Salvador, is the premier Intellectual Property and Litigation boutique firm in El Salvador. The firm provides expertise in prosecuting and enforcing trademarks, patents and copyrights. In addition, the firm's attorneys are proficient in handling complex litigation matters, particularly intellectual property, commercial, civil, administrative and pharmaceutical law. The firm also has extensive knowledge of corporate transactional matters.

DE LA GASCA & CIA. has named Giancarlo de la Gasca as the firm's ALFAI Contact Partner. The firm will be involved in ALFAI's Business Litigation, Corporate Transactions, Intellectual Property & Information Technology and Real Estate Practice Groups and the Latin American Regional Group.

Giancarlo de la Gasca, the firm's managing partner, announced, "We are excited to become a member of the ALFAI network and the opportunities it presents for us and our clients."

ALFAI's CEO, Jessica Zaroski Bauer, echoed Giancarlo's sentiments. "El Salvador is an essential jurisdiction in Central America, and ALFAI has been looking for the right member to fill that jurisdiction for some time. We were thrilled to have one of our valued clients recommend DE LA GASCA & CIA. The firm's commitment to actively participate in the network and promote ALFAI to more of its clients is commendable."
