ALFA International Expands Its Presence in the Balkans Region with Its Newest Member in Croatia

ALFA International (ALFAI) is pleased to announce that M&S Partners has become our member firm in Croatia, effective from June 18, 2024.

Based in Zagreb, M&S Partners is a full-service law firm representing a wide range of clients, from individuals, family-owned companies, NGOs, and startups to large financial institutions, state bodies, high-ranking politicians, national and multinational corporations and associations. The firm's practice areas encompass Corporate Law, Banking & Finance, Bankruptcy & Insolvency, Debt Collection, Energy, Compensation for Damage, Criminal Law, Contracts, Real Estate, Litigation, Employment Law, Administrative Law, Intellectual Property, Public Procurement, and other branches of law.

M&S Partners has appointed Andrej Šooš Maceljki as the firm's ALFAI Contact Partner. The firm will participate in ALFAI's Construction and Corporate Transactions Practice Groups and the European Regional Group.

Andrej Šooš Maceljki, the firm's managing partner, stated, "We were previously an active member of another network but could not establish long-term relationships with many of the member firms. One of ALFAI's European members encouraged us to explore ALFAI and we were impressed by our initial meeting. We feel ALFAI shares the same values and are confident we will develop meaningful relationships."

ALFAI's CEO, Jessica Zaroski Bauer, mirrored Andrej's sentiments. "ALFAI was seeking another firm in the Balkans and was very impressed with M&S Partners. The firm understands the importance of being part of a network whose strong connections help bolster not only their firm but the entire organization."
